

Sensation Celebration: A Sensory Awareness Event Celebrating 30 sensational years

“Ask Dr. Lucy”

A LIVE Webinar

One of your 30-for-30 Sensation Celebration event opportunities

The event: A SENSATION CELEBRATION WITH LUCY’S LIVE WEBINAR AS THE CORNERSTONE for a program that incorporates other educational and/or fundraising activities such as a panel discussion of SPD issues, family stories from local parents, a speaker, an auction, etc.

The format:

- Scheduled at 6 pm Mountain Daylight Time (18:00 GMT -6:00) on Saturday, October 2
- Transmitting via the Internet (webinar format)
- Featuring Dr. Lucy Jane Miller – scientist, clinician, author and our founder
- Answering live questions with a handful of previously selected remote audiences. Answering written questions submitted ahead of time by anyone. Details for login information will be broadcast via email to our entire database.

Organizers not able to schedule an event on October 2 will be able to screen the recorded program at a later date of their own choosing.

What you will need:

- A VENUE – For large events, we recommend a school auditorium or other large room, your public library, a local university, or a similar location. For small events, such as a house party, choose the location that best fits your expected crowd and other activities.
- COMPUTER plus a large-screen TV or – COMPUTER with speakers, plus a large-screen and LCD projector for projecting the video feed – Either will work. Be sure to ask if your venue can provide.
- INTERNET access – Must be totally reliable!

Your venue must have Internet access. Be sure to ask at your venue if they can provide the computer, speakers, and/or screen for you.
